Internal Medicine A Doctors Stories

Internal Medicine captures the “stark moments of success and failure, pride and shame, courage and cowardice, self-reflection and obtuse blindness that mark the years of clinical training” (Jerome Groopman, New York Review of Books), portraying not only a doctor’s struggle with sickness and suffering but also the fears and frailties each of us—doctor and patient—bring to the bedside.

Internal Medicine: A Doctor's Stories: Holt, Terrence ...

The nine stories comprising Internal Medicine loosely reflect Holt’s experience as an internal medicine resident, describing the shocks and changes, both subtle and profound, he undergoes in becoming a doctor. The doctor in the stories is named “Harper” and the patient cases are compositely drawn so that Internal Medicine occupies a grey area in between fiction and non-fiction.
